Synopsis: Restructuring of protective orders. Restricts the issuance of protective orders to cases of domestic or family violence, stalking, or sex offenses. Allows a workplace violence restraining order to be issued for the protection of an employee. Provides that a law enforcement officer responding to the scene of a crime involving domestic or family violence may confiscate firearms, ammunition, and deadly weapons. Removes the requirement that an address confidentiality program participant live in Indiana. Allows an emancipated minor to participate in the program. Provides that victims of sexual assault and stalking may participate in the program. Allows participants who obtain a name change to continue participating in the program but requires the participants to provide documentation of the name change to the office of the attorney general. Prohibits the disclosure other than by the office of attorney general of a participant's identifying information to a law enforcement officer. Repeals provisions relating to renewal of program participation following termination of a protective order. Repeals a requirement that a program participant provide a copy of a renewed protective order to continue program participation. Repeals a requirement that the office of attorney general revoke the certification of a program participant who obtains a name change. Repeals certain provisions concerning protective orders. (This conference committee report reinstates existing law which provides that the name, address, telephone number, and other identifying information of a participant in the address confidentiality program is confidential and may not be released by a county voter registration office, except: (1) to a law enforcement agency, upon request; or (2) as directed by a court order. Establishes a new Class D felony for the reckless supervision of a child by a child care worker that results in the death of a child. Provides that the confiscation of firearms, ammunition, and deadly weapons may occur only if certain criteria are satisfied. Removes requirement that a law enforcement officer who confiscates firearms, ammunition, or deadly weapons, shall provide the owner with information on the process for retaking possession of each item removed.)

Effective: July 1, 2002.
